ceived with uproarious demonstrations—of some sort. The telegraph says "great excitement prevails" — whether induced by rage against the winds and reefs which caught the piratical Susan. or at the of the Britishers in laying hands on her crew of the British commander is the most del cate bit of pleasantry of the season.

Excitement in Cuba.
The President's Message created intense excitement at Havana, and a war meeting was held at which a loyal petition to the Queen of Spain imploring her not to sell Cuba was originated. It is reported that the new Spanish officers had made overtures to the French Government to intercene to prevent any revolutionary move-ment on the island—there being good reason to believe that some such movement was on foot. This is subsentionable by private advices in New Orleans. The people and a part of the army are asserted to be ready for a revolution, but are Fillibusters Heard Prom.

Another outrage has been perpetrated by the British in the Caribbean Sea. Her Britishaic Majesty's steamer Basilisk fell in with the fillibuster orati Susan, on the 20th uit, near Ballze (British Honduras), wrecked, and her passengers in distress. The Basilisk took the waspabonds on board and conveyed them back to Mobile, where it seems they were re-

While the Yandalia was a Ovolau, in the Berjee Isands, informatio was communicated to Commander Sinclair by the Cosmit at Leynka, but the inhabitant of Lomati, on the Island of Waya—a tribe o ferocious Cannibals had surprised a small reseal, and surdered, existed, and eaten the crew. Thereupon, an execution, consisting of sixty men, was fitted oit, placed in charge of Lieut. Caldwell, with Lieut. Kamsay, o the Marlnes, Assistants surgeon Trist, and Master's Mate Bartlett, all sent against them. The natives relusing to give up the murderers, and taking advanage of their strong position (a town ditunted on the top of a high mountain 1,600 feet dowe the level of the sen) to delay the part sent against them, a hauding was effected a daylight on the morning after reaching the Island; and after a most fatiguing mare of several hours, over declivities, prospicespocks, and through revines, the expedition arrived opposite the form.
